RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Dr. Robert L. Edwards.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE ACADEMY of Medicine and Surgery, Richmond, Va., upon the death of Dr. Robert L. Edwards.

of Medicine and Surgery, Richmond, Va., upon the death of Dr. Robert L. Edwards

At a called meeting of the Academy of Medicine and Surgery at 5 P. M., November 13, 1913, the academy learned with deep regret of the sudden death of Dr. Robert L. Edwards, and passed the following resolutions: Whereas, we, the members of the Academy of Medicine and Surgery of Richmond, Va., assembled, learn with deep regret and sorrow of the death of Dr. Robert L. Edwards, an honored member of the medical profession of this city, it is therefore.

Resolved, That we recognize in the death of Dr. Edwards a great loss to the medical profession of this city, it is therefore.

Resolved That we recognize in the death of Dr. Edwards a great loss to the medical profession of this city and State. Dr. Edwards, although he has lived among us only six years, had proved himself a skilfel specialist in diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, and had won, by his high character, his [horough and painstaking attention fo duty, his strong and pleasing personality and his nobility of character, the affection and regard of all who knew him. Further, be it

Resolved, That in his death, not only does the profession lose a valued member, but the community in which he lived loses a man whose high Chiristian life and integrity of character were always a helpful and enobling example to those with whom he came in contact. Further, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the Academy of Medicine and Surgery of Richmond, express to the family of Dr. Robert L. Edwards our sincere sympathy for them in this their hour of affliction, and that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the academy and a copy sent to the family and to the daily press.
